

MEDITECH INFORMATION SYSTEMS RECRUITING SPECIALISTS

Navin Group, Inc. has emerged as the leading provider of permanent recruitment and placement of MEDITECH information systems professionals. Led by former CIO and Consultant, John Haffty, Navin Group's healthcare information systems recruiters know the MEDITECH market. They understand the challenges facing a department when vital positions are vacant. Navin Group can identify quickly CIOs, IS Directors, Patient Accounting/Fiscal Professionals, Clinical & Financial Analysts, Project Leaders, Nursing Informatics Specialists, Programmers and NPR Report-Writers.

Founded in 1983, the firm has established a reputation for excellence in search and recruitment services in the healthcare industry. All candidates are screened and qualified before presentation to clients. Extensive and formal reference checking, credentialing and education validation are an integral part of Navin Group's placement services. Navin Group is differentiated from other search firms by virtue of its in-depth knowledge and understanding of the MEDITECH community. The company consists of a team of recruiters whose expertise focuses on knowing the intricacies of the MEDITECH market. These recruiters locate seasoned candidates who have exercised their expertise and adaptability in the healthcare industry. Navin Group has served over 100 hospitals who use MEDITECH as their core HCIS.

Navin Group actively participates in MUSE and regularly contributes to the MEDITECH-L. Its sister company, Navin, Haffty & Associates, circulates a monthly newsletter offering incisive commentary on changing healthcare environments and future hospital needs. Together, Navin, Haffty & Associates and Navin Group will assist your organization in providing interim staffing to cover critical vacancies during the search process.

The Navin, Haffty network, piloted by John Haffty, provides MEDITECH HCIS hospitals a single source for permanent and interim staffing needs. The company has earned the trust and respect of MEDITECH and a majority of consulting firms and vendors in the MEDITECH market sector. We know the industry. We know the people.

Navin Group, Inc. and Navin, Haffty & Associates diligently maintains respect for each client and has set the industry model for business integrity and professionalism. Navin Group welcomes the opportunity to respond to your staffing needs and to earn your trust.
